

St. John of the Cross Church School Forced to Reject 350 Applicants

The school at St. John of the Cross Church will be filled to capacity but there will be no double sessions, according to Sister M. Barbara, CSJ, superior. Approximately 600 students have been registered and registration date has passed, she said. Approximately 350 students who have asked to attend have been turned down because of the lack of classrooms and because there are not enough nuns of the service order of sisters to go around. Later this year work will start on a new addition to the church and additional space will be made available for four or five more classrooms, she said. Others than those of Catholic faith are attempting to gain admission to the school, she said.

Michael Roehm Moved to Children's Hospital

Michael Roehm, 17-year-old Helix High graduate last June, stricken with polio three weeks ago, has been taken to Children's Hospital, where he is receiving treatment of care and treatment. Mrs. Roehm told this reporter on Friday, the 24th, that she had seen Mike the day before and talked with him. His spirits have bettered, though he told his mother he was afraid he would be in the hospital for a long time. The doctors could not be reached. Mrs. Roehm said, but the head nurse had told her it was too soon to tell how serious the boy's ailment will prove. Hot packs are being applied, which relieve the pain, but pain in both legs persists, and in his back, with no movement in right leg—can wiggle toes on left leg. The police foundation got in touch with Mrs. Roehm at once after learning of Mike's condition, and Mrs. Roehm was invited to foundation headquarters, received very kind attention. A form was filled out and will be acted on by officials of the foundation. Hospital expense alone amounts to $750 monthly. The foundation receives funds from the March of Dimes and other sources. When the foundation makes its report locally we will be able to help as a financial way. Until then, Mrs. Roehm requests that nothing be done here.—D. H.

SCHOOL POPULATION TO REACH RECORD

Heart-tugs and sighs of relief will be blended on September 11 in every school-child home as some 3,250 of our little angels troop off to school in Lemon Grove—on single sessions.

A ten room junior high school already has been approved for a site on Palm and Mt. Vernon, to help lighten the impact of an estimated 8,000 new residents who will occupy homes in tracts already started within the school district.

For the first time locally, a concise run-down of the why-and-wherefores of the bright, new school year is listed.

Opening of School

School starts Tuesday, September 11. Reason—Monday, the tenth, is a legal holiday following Admission Day. A regular full-day session will be held the first day.

Enrollment

The estimated school district enrollment for this term will be 3,250 pupils. Enrollment in the individual schools in the district will range from 550 to 750.

Growth

Home construction in three major subdivision developments will swell school enrollment during the current term. These are: Larwood Park—400 homes; San Aliso—600 homes; and Pearce Acres—71 homes. It is hoped that the ten classroom project planned and approved on the Palm and Mount Vernon site and future plans on two additional elementary school sites will forestall a return to double sessions.

Class load

The average class load per teacher will be 33 pupils. The load in some classes will be higher because an attempt will be made to keep enrollment down in the first grade and in some of the special classes.

Registration

Pupils who attended Lemon Grove schools last year are not required to re-register. All other children who will be entering this school district for the first time should register the week before school starts if they have not already done so. School offices will be open for this purpose.

Minimum Ages

Kindergarten—Children must be four years and nine months of age on or before September 1.

First grade—Children must be five years and nine months of age on or before September 1.

Birth certificates must be presented as proof of age.

Regular Day Session

By using every classroom to capacity it will not be necessary to have any double-session program. In order to do so it may be necessary to transport a few children from one school area to another.

Half of the kindergarten children will attend school in the morning and the remainder in the afternoon. This arrangement is considered a regular school session for a kindergarten.

NO BROKEN BONES NOT ENOUGH DRINKS — LIONS PICNIC IS FUN

Col. Bob Pulliam, operator of Children's Bostery has been appointed publicity chairman of the Lemon Grove Lions club according to Roy Erwin, president.

First thing the colonel reported was a picnic which was held last Sunday at Pine Valley. More than 100 persons, which included 35 Lions, their families, assorted children and pets, and friends trekked to the Pine Valley picnic grounds and indulged in soft drinks, sack races, potato races and the like. Drinks were free. No bones were broken in the competition.

Next project is to be the Halloween party which is staged annually by the club. This affair is open to the public and always attracts all of the community's celebrities.

C. of C. Board To Meet Tuesday

The Board of Directors of the Lemon Grove Chapter of Commerce will hold their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, September 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Homeland Justice Courtroom. All members are invited to attend.

Mr. O. B. Robinson will attend the meeting to discuss the possibility of placing a "Lemon Grove" sign near the freeway.

NOTE

The Lemon Grove Fire District rate was erroneously quoted in another newspaper this week.

The correct rate for this district is 10c, according to Chas. P. Mason, Fire Commissioner. He said the wrong rate had been listed at 5c.

'Stick-Up' False Alarm Brings Police To Grove

A "phony" 211 call was given the sheriff's department on a reported stick-up at Michael's restaurant at 9 p.m. Sunday night, Deputy Hal Johnson said. The sheriff's station issued a "code 3" for all men in the district. Johnson was first there and peeked in cautiously. Nothing appeared amiss. Revelers were in the throes of normal Sunday night festivities. Highway Patrol and San Diego police department units also covered the call. After a complete investigation the police labeled the tip as false. Patrols were not disturbed. Only those at the bar even knew of the alarm.

A "211" call is a stick-up. A "code 3" is a call for red lights and sirens for all officers in the area.

Now sheriff's men are looking for the party who placed the false alarm.

Three New Shops To Open On Broadway Near Lemon Grove

Three new business firms will join the ranks of Lemon Grove retailers this fall. All of them will be in the bank of buildings developed by Curtis Coleman Associates, according to Charles Kerch, industrial and business postal manager for the firm.

In the new building adjacent the post office will go a retail candy shop handling Hoad candies, a well-known quality product.

In the building formerly occupied by the Salvation Army will be started a sporting goods firm which will handle manufacturers' close-outs at reduced prices. The firm will also handle allied lines, according to Kerch.

Another retailer, The Cancellation Shoes, 7941 Broadway, will occupy the shop next to Magdara. John Thero said that he would open a "cancellation" operation in mid-September with a line of nationally known shoes for men, women and children.

Physical Checkups Suggested for School Children

A thorough physical examination for all children who will be attending local schools is suggested by Miss Lydia Smiley, health coordinator for La Mesa-Spring Valley Schools.

Local elementary schools, La Mesa Junior High, and Spring Valley Junior High will open their doors for the start of regular session on Tuesday, September 11 (September 10 is California Admission Day, a legal holiday for state and county departments).

It's always a good idea for boys and girls to have a physical check-up before beginning a year of school, reminds Miss Smiley.

FRANK FOSTER TO RUN FOR DISTRICT HOSPITAL BOARD

Frank Foster, an insurance man of 3514 Fairway Drive, has thrown his hat into the ring for the non-paying position of member of the Grossmont Hospital board of directors.

Foster ran for the post in 1954 but was defeated although he amassed a total of approximately 8,000 votes. He needs to acquire one of the three seats which are open. Also running are insurance men R. Marvin Jackson, Foster Bond and Homer Strach. Strach was defeated in 1954 but was successfully made treasurer of the district and then named to the board last year when Herbert Russell resigned.

September 15 is the last date for filing petitions to run.

What will the tax rate be? That question will be settled by the supervisors, who have been working for weeks with the budget officers and trimming the demands of the various departments of county government for money to pay next year's bills, and with bonds to be voted on in millions. The board has figured a cut in total rate of about eight cents below last year's rate.

The state board of equalization has set the total assessed value of San Diego county's public utilities at $118,317,870, an increase of $15,771,200 from last fiscal year.

The new assessed utility values raised San Diego County's total tax base to $978,057,630 for the fiscal year, an 85-million dollar increase. The board of supervisors recently set the assessed valuation on property other than utilities at $559,569,760.

The state constitution requires that public utilities be assessed by the board of equalization. Other property values are set by local assessors and boards of supervisors.

At the August 21 meeting of the supervisors no mention of the tax rate was made. That will come next week, when the rate will be set and the auditor notified by Elmer Leffert and the tax accounting division can get busy on the bills.

Haaf Protest

Time had been reserved at 11:45 for the appearance of Ted Haaf concerning his sewer bond assessment covering Lots 9 and 12. Alameda. Addition, Lemon Grove, in 1911 Act Arva 7, which has been completed. This addition lies between Citronella and Imperial. The original sewer line was laid on Imperial in 1947. Jean Vancura, director of public works, spotted a map on the electric board, pointed out Haaf's lots. In 1953 Haaf had three parcels, filed protest on assessment. He told the board he thought his assessment of $66 plus $100 for two connections was too high, on no consideration had been given to his gift of an easement for a sewer line through his lots.

Vancura said Haaf's property was "thoroughly sewered." The board extended the hearing.

Shortage in the cash register of a local food market has followed disturbances created by three young men in at least two places of business.

Kelly Morgan, assistant manager at Mayfair said that the three approached the cashier and tendered a large bill for a small purchase. Another of the ringleaders tossed a package into the air and whoops at the same time. While the cashier is distracted, the purchaser snatches several large bills from the drawer.

The group was unsuccessful at Mayfair. They tried it later in the Rancho Market Basket. Sheriff's Department men said the market reported a shortage of $140 next day.

Would Lemon Grove property owners add $13 a year to their tax bill to acquire a community park and playgrounds which would include our community swimming pool and Little League diamond?

That question is one which should be answered within the next few months if such a facility is to become a reality before some of the youngsters who have worked so ardently on the project mature and have offspring of their own.

Members of the L. G. Swimming Pool Association have worked tirelessly to acquire a 2½ acre site on Mt. Vernon near Washington Street. They have already paid in half of the $12,500 obligation and have funds left to pay off the balance if need be.

30 Years of Work

In three years, hundreds of us have strained and stretched to acquire these funds. At the same rate of progress it would take more than 30 years to acquire an estimated $130,000 to make such a facility real.

An alternative would be to form a recreation district in Lemon Grove with the bonded indebtedness going against local property owners. This, of course, could be done by an election in which the residents, whether they own property or not, would be eligible.

The cost of bond issue would be about 4c per $100 assessed valuation. The average home in the Lemon Grove area carries a $2,500 assessed valuation. The lot is another $500. Thus the tax rate for the recreation district would be based on an approximate $3,000 valuation. Another penny would go for operating expenses.

Persons who have worked closely with the Swimming Pool Association feel that $130,000 is needed to do the trick and that $20,000 a year is needed to operate a complete recreation program which would include the upkeep and operation of the pool. $13 a Year

Based on a district the size of our elementary school district with its 18 million dollar assessed valuation the $130,000 obligation over a 30 year period would average 4c per $100 assessed valuation. Thus, an average ($3,000) home would be taxed $12 a year plus $3 for operating. As the assessed valuation of the district grows as it will when the San Aliso tract (600 homes) Larwood tract (400 homes) and the Pearce tract (70) are completed, the rate will be reduced.

Some of the operating expenses could come from swimming pool admission charges but no known municipal swimming facility in the county area is now paying its own way.

There is a 3¼ acre tract of land adjacent the present 2½ acre site which is available right now. A six acre playground within the residential area of any community is unusual, but here it is possible.

Little League

One of the hazards involved in delay in the "rights by prior use" problem. Plans are about now to convert the swimming pool site into a Little League baseball diamond. This is, of course, a proper and fitting use for the community-advised land. It, after two.

 or three years, by some fate of financial wizardry, a swimming pool can be started, you'll hear the baseball enthusiasts complaining loud and long. And I wouldn't blame them.
 Recreational facilities. It has been offered, are as vital to a community as the lighting districts. In an area such as this, where urbanization is coming up like thunder a "recreational" district can easily be the difference between a wholesome juvenile problem and not. Thus it becomes a matter of civic responsibility rather than a desire to "please" our youngsters.

No one in Lemon Grove I have talked to seems to have any plans afoot for such a district but this newspaper will offer its facilities to any representative group which wants to start a recreation district ball rolling.

MEMBER FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK SYSTEM

When someone questioned newspaper coverage of Lemon Grove's 18,000 population it surprised us to discover how vague the understanding of this element of newspaper life was in the minds of the reader and businessman alike.

We distribute somewhat more than 4,000 copies each week to people who have said they want to read us and who pay an annual subscription for this privilege.

According to Paul Reynolds, the school district boundaries which make up the community of Lemon Grove has 18,000 persons living therein. It takes four of these people to make up one family. Therefore we have approximately 4,500 families in Lemon Grove.

While we think our paper is readable, we make no claim that any family has more than one subscription to us. Thus, our four thousand-plus distribution all but saturates the community.

Equally important, our readers are subscribers by choice. He may not agree with us but he reads us by choice. He does that because he wants local news. When we no longer fill that function, he steps us.

Paid subscriptions are the only measuring stick a newspaper has for acceptability.

El Cajon Valley's tenth annual Cinderella Princess contest, a feature of the Mother Goose Parade to be staged on Sunday, November 18, will get under way on September 19.

Eligible to compete in the contest are girls in the sophomore, junior and senior classes of El Cajon, Grossmont and Helix high schools. This year El Cajon service clubs will direct activities for all girls.

Rules specify that no fund collection jars will be allowed in stores or places of entertainment. Final judging will be on the basis of the prize, personality, beauty and scholarship of individual contestants.

To qualify, nominees must sell at least 25 one dollar memberships in the Mother Goose Parade Association. Funds raised by the contestants will be counted as votes in determining final standings at the rate of one cent per vote.

All girls who sell the required 25 memberships by October 1 automatically become finalists and will continue their fund raising activities through November 1.

The princess will be selected from the group of ten finalists receiving the greatest number of votes through their fund raising work. Remaining finalists will become members of her court.

In addition, finalists will make a trip to Hollywood and tour through movie studios.

Girls interested in trying for the Cinderella princess contest may obtain further information at the Mother Goose Parade Association office, Highway 4-8712.

Area Artist Subject Of Magazine Article

Olaf Wieghorst, an area resident, who is attracting nationwide attention to the Homeland area with his skill as an oil painter of western animals, is the featured subject of a San Diego county publication.

The magazine, the San Diego Federal Home Magazine, is circulated to 70,000 county homeowners.

Reproduction of the article in this newspaper was permitted by Jack Thompson, president of the bank which publishes the magazine.

The Wieghorst family resides at 900 So. Sunshine Street in El Cajon. His paintings usually bring $2,000-$3,000 and the demand, for the past several years, has been greater than Wieghorst can produce them.

The SDF HOME article follows:

"Olaf Wieghorst is a rugged, independent, blue-eyed Dane who loves horses. He doesn't fully understand them, but his intimate knowledge, coupled with a powerful affection for the American West, has overflowed in a series of prize-winning paintings that have brought him plaudits as today's outstanding interpreter of range life.

"His ranch scenes depict the sounds, smells, sweat, dust and beauty of the cattle country with such clarity and detail that an old cow-poke can tell the breeding of the horses, the brand of the cattle and the location of the spread. Each shows the emotional knowledge tempered with appreciation, mark of the outstanding artist.

"Mr. Wieghorst's early life gave little hint he would become thus famed. At 9, he was a professional acrobat touring Europe, but he spent spare moments around stables, exercising or caring for horses, sketching and painting them at day's end. His favorite reading was the dime-novel version of the Old West. At 15, he learned equitation, and later became a movie stunt man, still drawing and still nursing his ambition to migrate to the American West. In 1918, he crossed the Atlantic as a cabin boy, and in New York enlisted in the cavalry. Less than six months after arrival, Olaf was on the Texas border.

"After the Army came months of riding the range. He lived, ate and slept with cow ponies through blizzards and heat waves, through days of thirst and hunger, and through long hours of observing, absorbing and sketching the looks and atmosphere of range and canyon.

"He learned all the ways horses can kick, or bite, or buck. He fell from them, and was stepped on. He loved the life, but in 1924 he left, reluctantly, to join the New York Police Department where he sweated out 20 years breaking green horses, riding a Central Park beat and doing trick riding. And painting.

"Pensioned in 1944, Olaf piled his family (New York wife and teenage son) into a trailer and came West through Indian country, studying and drawing along the way. They first saw the green El Cajon Valley from U. S. 80, and knew this was where they'd sink tap roots. They built a quiet corner of the Old West—adobe ranch house with corral for two ponies, burning brands of friends' ranches on room corners, and scattering range relics through home, yard and corral. There are Indian weavings on walls and floors, and two of Olaf's puncher sculptures near his big easel. "As a boy, Olaf's first sale was for two horses (140). Today, collectors pay up to $400 or more. He no longer does commercial work, explaining 'Art directors don't know the West, but they always want something changed. They've never lived here. I have. So I do it my way.'"

Sorteberg to Be on Vacation Full Month

Dr. Harry Sorteberg, Monterey Heights dentist and president of the local Rotary Club, is going on vacation at the end of the week.

What dates? They're easy to remember. "We'll be gone the entire month of September," Dr. Harry reported.

He, with his wife Ruth who is feeling fine now following an earlier in the year hospital scare, will go to San Francisco, Portland, and return via Yosemite. The couple lives at 1865 Skyline.

COLLECTOR SEEKS RARE COINS

San Marcel, a barber at 4320 University, a rabid coin collector, is looking for these coins:

A $50 round gold piece, $50 octagonal gold piece, $250 gold piece, $1 gold piece, and $50 silver, all commemorating the San Diego 1915 Exposition. He says

New Spray Controls Mosquitoes and Flies

That perennial pest, the mosquito, is being controlled by the powerful insecticide, malathion, thanks to a ruling of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The ruling opens a new era of control for species which have become resistant to DDT and other chemicals.

Federal acceptance means that public health and sanitation agencies, resort operators, campers, industrial concerns and home owners will have available a low hazard and highly effective insecticide for outdoor control of all flies, mosquitoes and mosquito larvae.

Malathion is a development of American Cyanamid Company. It has been tested for mosquito control during the past two years by USDA, state and local agencies. Previously, it had been given USDA acceptance for control of over 80 farm, home and garden pests. It is available in various formulations at retail outlets.

Malathion was used in 1954 in California's Central Valley by the State Department of Public Health and the Merced County Mosquito Abatement District to wipe out a severe infestation of the dreaded Culex tarsalis, a carrier of sleeping sickness. This mosquito had become resistant to DDT. Threatened with an infestation of epidemic proportions, officials tried malathion and found that it killed all mosquitoes within 50 yards of the spray.

Florida Aided
In Brevard County, Florida, where 100,000 acres of salt marshes offer ideal mosquito breeding grounds, malathion is being used for the first time this year by the county mosquito control district. Spray planes are applying malathion in diesel oil over 500,000 acres. According to Lee Wenner, district director, the malathion spray has been more lethal than any insecticides previously used and more economical since lower concentrations of the new insecticide have produced a record kill. A check test count taken on a man's body over a ten-minute period in an infested area resulted in a count of 300 mosquitoes before the first spray was applied. In comparable tests taken afterward, not one mosquito was found.

Wenner also noted that malathion has a carryover value in fly control. Poultry farms in the vicinity of Coca, Florida, provide fertile fly breeding sites. Malathion sprays, applied with a fogging machine to kill mosquitoes, have resulted in knocking down the fly population for as much as ten days, according to Wenner.

In nearby Broward County, where millions of mosquitoes are bred in the coastline marshes and the Everglades, resistance was noted by 1955 to all existing methods of mosquito control. Malathion, used on an experimental basis last fall, resulted in "as close as you can get to a 100% kill," according to inspector C. D. Souder. This year the district is using only malathion to kill both adult mosquitoes and larvae.

Kills Flies, too
Further evidence of malathion's effectiveness against mosquitoes and houseflies is accumulating in southern Florida, where plant board and USDA officials have joined forces to eradicate a new infestation of the Mediterranean fruit fly. Malathion was selected to combat this pest because of its effective kill, ranging up to 99%, and its low hazards for men, birds and animals. Applications of the spray are being made by aircraft at ten day intervals over all cities, towns and farm lands where the Medfly has been found. As a side effect of the spraying, residents in those areas report almost complete disappearance of mosquitoes and house flies.

As research continues to uncover new pests which can be controlled by this multi-purpose product, malathion is emerging as a "miracle insecticide" because of its relative safety, wide range and high rate of insect kills.

This should be of particular interest to the residents of the Spring Valley area, as much was said about the swarms of flies earlier this year, and yet not too much has been done about them.

Mrs. Marion Johnson Passes On

There's Tricks To All Trades

By BEUCHER DIXON
General Manager, San Diego Better Business Bureau

September on San Diego County means back to school again.

This is the month when vacation ends, and long-suffering mothers everywhere can breathe a well-earned sigh of relief.

But there is no rest for the watch dogs of the Better Business Bureau, for education and advanced schooling has its rack-teers, too. Fortunately, most schools selling courses of instruction offer a worthwhile public service, but there are a few which capitalize on the human desire for self-improvement. Their salesmen make exaggerated claims, even promising full employment once the course is completed or paid for in full.

Some correspondence schools even imply that they are tied in with the government, despite the fact that the Federal Trade Commission has prohibited such misrepresentation in advertising.

No school can guarantee employment, and if you have been taken in by any such job guarantee, the Better Business Bureau wants to know about it.

Check with the bureau on the reputation of any school with which you plan to deal. Insist that any verbal promises of employment be included in the written contract.

Movie Sets for Sale

Some furniture dealers have stooped to new lows to attract the untutored customer. Latest gimmick is advertising furniture supposedly returned from movie and TV locations at a "fraction of the original cost." Unfortunately not even the management has been able to identify which pieces have been used, if at all, and since no items carried a retail price, business shoppers were unable to check on the accuracy of the price "reduction."

Your Better Business Bureau warns you to shop and compare before you buy. Remember, if it sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

Buying a Used Car?

When seeking transportation, look out for dealers who use "bait" advertising, misrepresent claims, offer high trade-in allowance, hide high finance charges or pack a contract. While most dealers are fair and honest, be on the guard against the fly-by-night boys who are waiting to deceive you. If in doubt, find out!

One new car dealer advertised two used cars in the classified columns, identifying each by license number at a sale price. When a prospective customer offered cash, first for one car, then the other, he was told that the special price applied only if the company handled financing on a time contract.

The bureau intervened and the dealer sold the car at the advertised price for cash.

Investigate before you invest. For a helpful 16-page guide on "Buying Used Cars," send ten cents in stamps to your Better Business Bureau, Specials Building, San Diego.

STORK AIR FREIGHT

BACK ON JOB

We began to wonder if Grossmont Hospital had quit having babies born at the maternity ward, not having had any reports for three weeks, and called up Doc Lake, who has succeeded Carlyle Reed in public relations counselling, since Carlyle went to Sacramento to a $12,000 per year job with the state's newly formed water board. Mrs. Reed and their two girls will join him in the state capital September 1.

Doc Lake explained that the publicity program had been interrupted by the birth of "the twins," which unusual event required countless columns of typed matter, but from now on we may expect weekly reports of arrivals at Grossmont Hospital. Following are listed arrivals in Lemon Grove of bundles of joy between August 1 and August 14, 1956.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crowell, 2018 Ensenada, a boy, 7 lbs. 8 3/4 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Salino, 7965 Golden Avenue, a boy, 8 lbs. 3 1/2 oz.

Spring Valley was credited with one boy and two girls. And don't think for a minute that these tiny youngsters are all that patronized Grossmont during that period. El Cajon and La Mesa each received ten new citizens, San Diego contributed 11 and Santee sent in one, with Lakeside making two contributions to the list of happy parents.

That's a pretty good record, 39 new voters in two weeks, hey?

Bus Transportation
In general bus transportation will be provided for all children who would have to travel more than the following distance to get to school:

Kindergarten—1/2 mile.

Grades one through three—1/2 mile.

Grades four through eight—1 mile.

Bus schedules and class lists will be posted at each school several days before school starts. Parents are urged to consult these lists so as to reduce the number of telephone calls in the school office. Bus routes and stops will be similar to those used last year. Bus schedules will have to be revised during the first week of school as the situation requires. We urge you to be patient.

Teachers' Workshop
All teachers and school administrators will participate in a pre-school workshop September 4-7. The purpose of this workshop is to make plans and preparations for the opening of school and to help the new employees become oriented to their new positions and into the community.

Orientation Day for Seventh Graders

An orientation day for seventh graders will be held Friday, September 7 at 8:30, at the Lemon Grove Intermediate School. Pupils will get their home room assignments, lockers, and will follow their class schedule through an abbreviated day.

Taxes
Tax statements this year will not carry the wording "Lemon Grove School District" followed by the total school tax rate levied by this district, the Grasmont High School, and San Diego Junior College. Instead, the county board of supervisors say the tax statement will bear the legend "Combined School Rates" opposite the amount of the school tax.

Lemon Grove Schools' part of this combined tax will be a $1.77 on each $100 of assessed valuation, a three cent reduction over the previous year. We have been informed that this district is about the only one in the county to effect a decrease in taxes.

Bert Betts To Be Coordinator of Local Registration for Demos

Bert A. Betts, of Lemon Grove, has been appointed local coordinator of a voter registration campaign being carried on by the San Diego County Democratic Central Committee. Betts is a member of the Central Committee.

Deadline for registration this year is September 13. In order to register for the presidential election November 6 a person must have lived in California since November, 1955, and in San Diego County since the first week in August.

Betts said the Democratic Central Committee has a Precinct Committee, which now includes a full Registration Division.

The Registration Division is trying to help the County Registrar or Voters' office get all qualified voters onto the lists by providing volunteers to take as deputy registrars and by carrying out door-to-door canvassing, he said.

Hugo Fisher and Tom Wrigley, County Central Committee members, are co-chairmen of the Precinct Committee. G. E. Williams is in overall charge of operations, as chairman of the Central Committee.

Heads of Five P.T.A.s Meet on Coming Term's Problems

Parent Teacher Association presidents representing the five schools which make up the L.G. School District with their health, room, mother, hospitality and publicity chairmen attended a meeting recently at the Education Center.

The purpose of the meeting was to review the procedure for making requests for use of buildings, to discuss P.T.A. publicity and arrangements for planning parties, etc., and to work out any other problems or questions which may arise.

Byron L. Netley, District Superintendent, conducted the meeting and was assisted by S. K. Seider, Assistant Superintendent, Mrs. Ruth Plater, cafeteria supervisor and Gladys Wayda, representative in attendance were from Golden Avenue, Monterey Heights, San Miguel, Vista La Mesa and Lemon Grove Junior High Parent Teacher Associations.

Myasthenia Gravis Meeting Scheduled For Sunday

The San Diego County Branch of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation holds a very important meeting Sunday at two p.m. in the Old Fellows' Hall at 2011 Kansas Street.

Myasthenia gravis is a disease which weakens the voluntary muscles and necessitates the patient taking expensive drugs at regular intervals to be able to move. It is difficult to diagnose, and may go through life as an invalid, spending most of the time in bed. Several cannot afford the expensive medication required to get about.

Myasthenia gravis is no respecter of persons; it has been diagnosed in tiny infants and nine attack any person of any age and any walk of life. The local foundation is attempting to locate patients, and already has found a way to buy medication much cheaper than organization.

Vogues To Have First Meeting Tuesday

The Vogue, evening section of the Woman's Club, will have their first business meeting of the new club season Tuesday, Sept. 4th, at 8:00 in the Club House. Mrs. Harold Wolfarth, chairman has selected the following members for the new board: Mrs. Ralph Nelson, program; Mrs. Charles Firebaugh, publicity; Mrs. San Hagen, amenities; Mrs. James Schellert, welfare; Mrs. William Hubbard, historian; Mrs. Howard Kohler, youth control; Mrs. John Gregory, and Mrs. Milton Lachman, telephone; Mrs. M. M. Connolly, soil improvement; Mrs. James Clavell, hostess.

The board met last Thursday in the home of Mrs. Wolfarth to discuss plans for the coming year. The members are looking forward to an interesting program. Those interested in joining the group are invited to attend.

Jaycee Head Leaves Town For Vacation

Tim Smith, Jr., 2277 Sweetwater Road, president of the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce, is off in a vacation. He is taking his family but leaving behind "two ferocious German Shepherd dogs." "There's nothing of value being left in the house except the dogs," Smith said. "If anyone wants to break in they'll have the dogs to greet." The Smiths will visit Yosemite Park and a cousin, Bill Earls, a member of the board of supervisors of Mono County. Smith is in the investigation department of the Gas and Electric Co.

Supervisor Bird To Be On Church U of Life Program

The First Congregational Church of Lemon Grove will again present its social action series of "University of Life" forums, open to all the residents of Lemon Grove and vicinity. The three Sunday evening forums will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Friendship Hall on the following Sundays: September 23, October 21, and November 18.

September 23rd, County Supervisor Dave Bird will be in Friendship Hall, with Mr. Byron Lindley, attorney, as moderator, to answer questions about the county government and its administration. Questions will be submitted in advance to Supervisor Bird through Social Action Committee of the Congregational Church. The question and answer period will be followed by a period of open discussion. Those who may want to ask questions of Supervisor Bird may do so through the Church office of the First Congregational Church.

On October 21st the forum will be devoted to a study of "Terms on the Ballot" in the November election. It was the opinion of the Social Action Committee of the First Congregational Church that too many voters devote their analytic capabilities to personalities in elections rather than to issues. In order to bring the balance into election day activities the items on the ballot, the various propositions, will be analyzed pro and con, foreground and background. Recommendations as a result of committee study will be made on those items which are seen as matters of partisan character.

Breakfast To Be Starting Point For 'Success' Drive

Spring Valley campaigners in the United Success Drive will help kick off the Heartland Division campaign at a breakfast at 7:45 a.m. Wednesday Sept. 5, in the El Nacimiento Country Club. Mayors of two Heartland cities and presidents of three chambers of commerce have been invited to join with United Success leaders in launching the 1956 Red Feather campaign in the Commerce and Industry and Public Employees groups.

Sounding the campaign theme of "making more miracles happen through Red Feather services" will be Tom Wigton, El Cajon, also presiding as Heartland Division chairman, Jack Atkinson, El Cajon, C & I chairman, and Judge Fenton R. Garfield, La Mesa, chairman of Public Employees, will outline their groups' campaign plans.

Jack Thompson, Jr., campaign chairman of the United Success Drive for $2,500,000 to support six Community Chests with 70 Red Feather services, will sum up the need for community services in the county of miraculous growth.

Methodist Women To Have Bake Sale Saturday

Do you have company coming over the weekend? Why bake for them—let the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church, sponsored by circle No. 2 do it for you. Come in the path between Piggy Wiggly and the United States National Bank on Broadway, Saturday, starting at 9:30 a.m. Goodies for all.

On Sunday evening, November 18, the forum will present a problem play, "My Name is Legion," by Nora Stirling and Nina Rosen, a dramatization based on "A Mind That Found Itself," an autobiography by Clifford W. Beers, founder of the Mental Health movement in America. The play will be directed by Bud Coffin of the Social Action Committee. The purpose of this forum is to provide dramatically that there is hope for the mentally disturbed if enough people can be made aware of the size and complexity of the mental health problem.

Each Sunday evening forum will be opened by a brief consideration of the social gospel by Reverend Bruno Puenchel and closed with a period of coffee and fellowship. There is no charge or advance registration required for this forum series and all who are interested in matters of social concern are invited.

Does Your Small Child Hear 'Good'?

The four and five year olds here and in many communities of the county will listen this summer for the pure tone produced by an audiometer. What they are unable to hear at varying decibels of volume may indicate possible defects that might be easily corrected by a private physician now. Neglected, hearing defects can grow serious.

The pure tone screening program is being done by an audiometrist on the public health nursing staff of the San Diego Department of Public Health. Many PTA groups are helping by asking parents to have their children tested before enrollment in kindergarten next fall. Held in county schools, the tests also give youngsters an early look at their new surroundings before the first day of school. In Lemon Grove Mrs. Genevieve Oliphant is in charge of the project.

Results of the screening begun last month pointed to fairly few possible defects. When defects are indicated, however, even more is at stake than saving a child's ability to hear. Hearing is closely linked to human behavior.

Also mentioned in another article was information on polio and the Salk inoculation. "So far close to 60 per cent of the county's children under 15 years of age have had their first Salk inoculations. The parents of 40 per cent have put off talking with their physicians about vaccination. Their delay gives way to panic when poliomyelitis strikes close to home. When the department of public health receives their calls, the answer is always the same. "Salk vaccine can build some immunity in ten days. It can be given any time of year."

Last month the opportunity to protect their children against paralytic poliomyelitis was extended to a large new group of parents. Salk vaccine became more abundant. The age limit for those eligible for the public supply of vaccine was extended to all persons through 18 years of age. Pregnant women are also eligible. Age restrictions on the commercial supply were lifted entirely. This means that anyone—regardless of age—may now make arrangements with a private physician for vaccination against paralytic poliomyelitis.

For parents, a talk with the doctor about vaccinations now—for themselves as well as their children—may prevent panic later.

80 Members of Lutheran Church Attend Picnic

The members of Lemon Grove Lutheran Church and Sunday School, about 80 in all, enjoyed a picnic at the L.G. Street Expanse in Balboa Park.

It began with a potluck dinner at 3 p.m. followed by games and contests for all ages. There were sack races, three-legged races, peanut races, ball driving contests, and there for the adults an egg throwing contest. After these, there was volleyball and softball games. To end the affair, ice cold watermelons were served and enjoyed by all.

Next Sunday Pastor M. C. Dixon, Secretary in the United States for the Santa Mission in India will speak at both services and show pictures in the Sunday School service.

Annabeth Emily, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wentzel was brought to the Lord in Holy Baptism last Sunday.

Two members of our Lutheran League have been attending a Lutheran League Leadership school in Van Nuys, California since Monday. Following this school the Southern Circuit Lutheran League Convention in Van Nuys from Sept. 14. Many members will attend this convention.

Number 032704, the second number chosen in the open house drawing for Marders Stationery, 7909 Broadway, was held by Mrs. Elaine Stangiewicz, 3205 Arcata, Saturday.

Mrs. Stangiewicz chose an item valued at $9 which included a

BOY INJURED ON CAMPO ROAD

Charles Noble, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noble, 9129 Campo Road, was hit by a San Diego City truck near his home last Monday, August 29 about 12:10 p.m., according to Mr. Noble.

Mr. Noble said the boy was taken to the house and the family physician called, who suggested the child be taken to a hospital. Taken to Graceland Hospital it was found the boy had a broken right arm and collar bone. He remained there until about 12 noon Tuesday.

SONSHIP WITH GOD THEME OF SERMON

"Man" is the Lesson-Sermon subject on all Christian Science churches on Sunday. The words of the beloved disciple John, as given in the Golden Text, illustrate the sermon, "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God" (1 John 3:1).

From the Holy Bible an admonition of the great Apostle Paul to the Ephesians is included, "Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, . . . And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And . . . put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness" (4:22-24).

Mason Family Eats Mountain Trout For Three Weeks

Chan Mason, Mrs. Mason and sons Peter and Mark returned last week, completing a 4700 mile trip to Montana, their camping grounds for the past two summers, with a tour of other states.

The family had engaged a cabin at Boulder River Ranch, a 2,000 acre estate, with three miles of posted fishing on Rock River. Accommodations for 25 to 30 guests are available, if one gets his name in the pot early in the season. Chan says he prefers his wife's cooking, fried trout especially, so they had a cabin, with all conveniences.

A nine foot snowfall last winter, some of which still was on the 11,000 feet high mountains, provided plenty of cold, and he meant COLD, water for the trout—rainbow, brown and brook—and while the water was somewhat cold, the fish were as good as last year, ample sport was provided for Jack Walton's disciples in the Mason clan. Chan did most of the fishing, all with fly casting, and the boys had their fill of the sport, but liked to help with the ranch work of the season, which happened to be haying. Pete and Mark ran a mower, raked the hay, like Maud Muller, rode horseback and had a grand time.

Mark lost his hat in Boulder River one day and couldn't catch it, and two days later his father recovered it when casting under a log further down the stream.

Thus here Boulder River is 100 yards wide, runs deep and swift can't be waded, but bridges are provided for crossing. This location is 40 miles north of Yellowstone Park, and visitors have to go to Livingston and come back, to avoid climbing the mountains. Falls below the ranch keep the "workers" below the trout fishing.

The Mason boys, Pete, 12 and Mark, 11, had a movie camera and if the films turn out "good," neighbors will be treated to something choice. A refuge, for wild fowl, 11 miles off the beaten track was visited, and thousands of ducks and geese congregate in the marshes, hundreds of acres in extent, all protected from hunters.

Leaving Montana and a few fish in the rivers, the party drove to Sheridan, Wyoming, through Colorado, New Mexico and Texas, then Arizona and home. An air-conditioner had been installed in the Masons' new car, so the heat didn't bother them. Chan says "There these conditions are great stuff. Why don't you get one?"

New Mexico's many beauties were a surprise to our hero. People are driving more carefully this year, and not a single narrow escape from collision on the entire trip was experienced, and the Masons' new car came home without a scratch or a dented fender. Carlisle Carvers got a thorough investigation. Entrance fee is $1.50 for adults, 75c for youngsters, and a 3 1/2 hour guided visit automobiles with the vastness of the rooms, the stateries and viaducts. For a buck one may get a box lunch, necessary after miles of walking underground. Last year the caverns had 485,000 visitors. Last month 48,000 visitors paid for tickets, and 12,000 is average daily attendance at this time of year. The government gets a revenue of some $750,000 annually.

At Taos, New Mexico, the Masons' Lodge has taken over the old home of Kit Carson, famous frontier guide, and some of his "used furniture" and many guns and other relics are being cared for in the museum. Pete and Mark got some wonderful pictures of the museum contents.

Chan told of the signal lights in El Paso, but we will reserve that story till next week.

If this story of Chan's FISHING trip entices you, call him up and get more details as to how to get there, etc. It's pretty late for this year, but not too early to plan a visit in 1957—D.H.

Stan Rose to Give Life Saving Lessons

Stan Rose, instructor-life saver of the Carmel Ranch Club on Highway 101, Spring Valley, and owner summer life saving courses which started last week. The courses, which will take about 10 hours, are for members between the ages of 12 and 15. The time is each Wednesday and Friday at 4 p.m.

Boys and girls who qualify will receive Red Cross patches for their bathing suits. Future plans call for life saving courses for those 16 years and up.

The Carmel Ranch Club, which at present occupies only a part of the five acres that was purchased last year for a summer development as the Carmel beach, is now under way. The beach, which is now under way, is now under way. The beach, which is now under way, is now under way.

Know How and When to Harvest Avocados

"Best returns for avocado fruit will be obtained if the grower knows how and when to pick the fruit," says University of California Farm Advisor C. D. Gustafson. Avocados are easily bruised and scratched and so careful handling of the fruit is necessary. Gustafson lists some suggestions which may be helpful in protecting the fruit.

Cotton gloves should be worn so the fruit will not be scratched by fingernails. Place fruit into the field boxes, do not drop them. Have some protection, such as canvas, beneath the fruit when it is placed on the ground.

Proper picking equipment will protect the fruit from injury, reduce labor cost, and be safer for the picker. For large trees, two poles, one six feet and one 12 feet in length are used. A ten-foot three-legged ladder and a straight ladder are suggested for use. Care should be exercised when metal picking poles and ladders are used near power lines.

Do not pull the fruit from the stem. Cut the stem well above the fruit when using a picking pole. With a hand avocado clipper, cut the stem as close as possible to the avocado without injuring the fruit. Long stems on fruit will injure the fruit. The button (short end of stem) should be left in the fruit. Decay may start if this is not done.

Store picked fruit in the shade. Do not fill the field boxes too full. Fruit in a full field box should not be touched by another box on top of it.

Avocados must contain a minimum of 8% oil before they pass the state's legal maturity requirement. Yet, oil content, which is an indication of maturity, cannot be determined unless the fruit is tested in a laboratory.

Varieties having purple or dark colored fruit are usually mature when they start to turn from green to a dark color. For fruits of a green color, however, the bright green diminishes and there is a yellowish tint to the skin and stem when the fruit is mature.

The green fruit also becomes smoother, especially at the end opposite the stem, and on many varieties, small corky areas appear on the skin. Large size is not a sure indication of maturity.

for any variety.

Some growers help determine maturity by cutting a few fruits and examining the seeds. Gustafson pointed out: Around the seed is a skin, the seed coat, the seed coat of immature fruit is fleshy and generally light tan to yellowish-white in color. If the seed coat is dark brown and tissue thin, then it is a good indication the fruit is mature.

Avocados remain hard as long as they are left on the tree, and soften only after picking. Immature fruit will wrinkle and often will not soften uniformly or properly. Mature fruit softens to a smooth-buttery consistency without wrinkling.

Highway Patrol Job Requirements Are Stricter

In reply to numerous inquiries, the state personnel board emphasized that entrance requirements for the forthcoming state traffic officer examination have been changed since last year's recruitment drive.

The new age requirement is 21 to 23 years instead of the previous 21-year maximum. Stricter physical standards require the applicants to be not less than five feet nine inches in height.

Salaries have been raised substantially, bringing the new range up to $395 to $481 a month.

Successful candidates will receive training at the California

Highway Patrol Academy. Operation of a motorcycle will be taught here. Possession of a valid California automobile driver's license is required at the time of appointment.

The personnel board also re-emphasized that no sample questions for the examination are in any way made available and that the state does not endorse nor recommend enrollment in any particular school as preparation for this examination, which is given on an open, competitive basis.

The examination is statewide and has been set for Saturday, October 13.

Application forms and detailed information may be obtained from state department of employment on Columbia Street.

NEWCOMERS TO LEMON GROVE LISTED

We are happy to welcome to Lemon Grove five newcomers, who have selected this area as "a nice place to come to," as one lady put it.

Old September is Quite a Month

September means back to school for millions of lucky youngsters—lucky Lemon Grove kids will return to school rooms September 11.

One thing the kids will learn about September is that September 20 will be the 2312th anniversary of the birth of Alexander the Great.

First Monday of the month, Sept. 3, is Labor Day. The autumnal equinox occurs at 8:38 p.m. Eastern Standard time on Sept. 22, and the shorter days become much more noticeable on September 28, when daylight saving time is abandoned for the year (except in cities where "last time" is continued until the last Sunday in October).

September's birthstone is the sapphire, the color of the skies, and the flower of the month is the morning glory. Special days during the month include Admission Day in California, the 12th, and two Oklahoma observances, Cherokee Strip Day on the 16th and Indian Day, the 22nd this year.

Samuel Johnson, one of the many notables born in September, left behind an admonition that is as timely today as it was when he wrote it a century and a half ago: "Catch them, O catch the transient hour; Improve each moment as it flies; Life's a short summer—man a flower; He dies—alas! How soon he dies." Like many others Johnson reminded his readers that it is the present that matters in accomplishment. (The above taken from Dailyaide, the Silent Secretary.)

Claremont, last week. The conference, which alternates each year between Stanford University and Claremont, is sponsored by the California Society of Certified Public Accountants, the American Institute of Accountants and the host school.

CHANGES IN ELECTRIC RATE SCHEDULES EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 1, 1956

New and revised electric rate schedules for the San Diego Gas & Electric Company's service area will go into effect September 1, 1956, as ordered by the California Public Utilities Commission.

DOMESTIC SERVICE (Residential)

There will be no change in the charges for domestic service except that minimum charges for large heating or power loads will no longer be applied. The new rates do not change the present rate zones. The Commission intends to hold further hearings on the zoning question.

AGRICULTURAL SERVICE

Certain minor and incidental farm uses of electricity which are not included under present domestic service schedules will be permitted under the new schedules D-1 and D-2 provided the transformer capacity required does not exceed twice the capacity required for the domestic use alone.

GENERAL SERVICE (Business Establishments and Small Industries)

The new and revised rate schedules for general service customers, such as business establishments and small industries, provide certain options in schedules and conditions which may be chosen by the customer as follows:

Schedules A-1 and A-2, now applied to single-phase service at secondary voltages, will be continued at the same rates but will be opened to three-phase service and combinations of single-phase with three-phase service. When three-phase or combination service is furnished there will be an additional charge of 40 cents per month per horsepower of connected polyphase load.

Customers now receiving single-phase service through one meter and three-phase power through another meter may find that they can lower their total cost for electricity by arranging their wiring to combine their requirements on one meter.

The revised Schedules A-1, and A-2 provide discounts to bills for customers who furnish their own transformation and take service at the Company's available standard distribution voltage above 2,000 volts.

GENERAL SERVICE (Military and Large Industries)

Present Schedule P-2 for industrial and military service is being cancelled. In its place, a new Schedule A-3 will be effective for all larger general service customers served at primary voltages.

Customers who desire to change from their present schedules and service conditions to a different schedule or different conditions should make written application for the change.

The Company's representatives will be glad to assist customers by explaining the application of the new schedules to their needs for electric service.

WHAT'S DOING

C. H. Muller, your local Telephone Manager

It's more than a job—it's a career

Did you know that one out of every five telephone men have been with Pacific Telephone over 20 years? One out of four telephone women have been with us over ten years. Many have been with us much longer. For a telephone job is much more than just a job. It's a career. And as telephone men and women gain valuable experience, they move up to jobs with more responsibility. This gives all of us at Pacific Telephone a sense of accomplishment. And it means that your telephone service is always in the hands of well trained, experienced people. It means better service to you. The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

They'll be as close as your telephone

Well, they'll soon be parked up and off to school. And then the slam-bang activity that's been going on all summer will slow down. Sure, it'll be peaceful. But it's a good bet, too, that you'll be happy to hear their voices often. So why not plan now to make regular telephone visits with your boy or girl away at school this coming semester. You can tell them to call home collect, too. You'll be surprised to find how low long distance rates really are, especially after 6 o'clock on weekdays and all day Sundays.

Did you know that your TELEPHONE COMPANY has a fine library of films which can be made available to you for showing to your schools, service organization, church or social group? These films range from historical and documentary films as "Mr. Bell" depicting the life of the inventor of the telephone to "The Telephone Hour" a 23 minute visit with the Bell Telephone Orchestra with Donald Voorhees conducting and Josef Holman as guest soloist. Also available are lecture demonstrations, the most recent addition being "Rockets Red Glare" which shows the part the Telephone industry has had in the development of NIKK through the invention of the transistor. For further information regarding these films or programs, please call us on Hopkins 6-3281 and ask for Mrs. Brown or myself, Mr. Muller. We will be happy to review your requirements and fit something into your plan.

the seats in the audience chamber were filled, all poultry raisers—spoke briefly, said they had endeavored to follow the health officer's instructions. The board referred the matter to the department of public works for investigation, and another hearing will be held, with a notice of the hearing sent to each member of the co-op.

After the poultry men and women left the chamber, this reporter went out in the hall, talked to Mr. Chamberlin. Chamberlin said that Dr. Herring, president of Lakeside Chamber of Commerce, had purchased some inexpensive land next to or near the county dump, which is east of Lakeside about three miles, on the north side of the river, about opposite the pumping plant at the old Monte Gate. Now Dr. Herring wants the county to spend $75,000 to buy and move to a new dump.

Further, Chamberlin said, the poultrymen's co-op represented an industry that brings $23,000,000 yearly, besides eggs alone bringing $15,000,000.

"It is the largest agricultural industry in San Diego county. If we can't find a place to process the manure, which is gathered often, some places daily, the poultry raisers will have to go out of business."

(We advised Chamberlin to employ an attorney to look out for their case. Gosh, it's getting so a feller can't keep a few chickens without some real estate lawyer movin' in and finding his place a nuisance.) Also, letter from surveyor and road commissioner recommending that said requests be granted in order to expedite the preparation and signing of the new bond and agreement, since the time limit on the present bond and agreement expires August 23, 1956. PALM STREET—That portion of the south one-half of the unnamed street shown on said Map No. 731, and now named Palm Street, lying northerly of and adjoining the northerly line of said Lot 2, Lemon Grove Addition No. 1; EXCEPTING therefrom that portion thereof lying easterly of the northerly prolongation of a line that is parallel with and distant 25 feet at right angles westerly from the easterly line of said Lot 2.

MT. VERNON STREET—That portion of the north one-half of the unnamed street shown on said Map No. 731, and now named Mt. All of the said work hereinafter generally described shall be constructed in the manner, to the grades, at the locations, within the limits, of the materials, and of the dimensions as shown upon and in accordance with the plans, profiles, drawings, typical cross-sections and specifications therefor, contained in Document No. 1956447, on file in the office of the Clerk of said Board of Supervisors, and copies of which are on file in the office of said Engineer, and by this reference thereto, all said plans, profiles, drawings, typical cross-sections and specifications are made a part hereof.

The said Board of Supervisors hereby determines and declares that said bonds shall be issued to represent each assessment of twenty-five dollars or more remaining unpaid after the full expiration of thirty days from the date of the warrant, to represent the expenses of said work and improvement. Said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending nine years next succeeding the next October 15th following their date, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the second day of January every year following the next October 15th after their date until the whole is paid. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, by coupon, on all sums unpaid until the whole of said principal and interest thereof shall be paid under and in pursuance of the Improvement Act of 1911 and amendments thereto.

Important Men's Club Meeting Poorly Attended

A lack of interest in the Parking problem which is becoming more important to Lemon Grove merchants day by day, was shown by the attendance at the Men's Club luncheon, on Friday. Only 20 regulars and visitors, and first-timers or irregulars threw their feet under the table.

Charlie Kerr, emcee for the day, while somewhat taken aback when he was delegated to arrange a program, with PARKING the theme to be discussed, radiant of recently secured a legal light on off-street PARKING LOTS and real estate experts on parking facilities and their relation to customers, which means BUSINESS for the merchants, as appeared later in the meeting.

Guest speaker Leo R. B. Hendrickson, until recently city attorney of La Mesa, told of difficulties encountered in successfully completing an off-street parking lot in La Mesa. He told of the various steps necessary, first selecting a site, getting an appraisal of value, then getting capital interested and methods of payment. Bonds for $250,000 were voted by La Mesa, paying 6% interest, 20 years to pay.

Afterwards Hendrickson mentioned Oakland, Calif., where bonds were issued for Parking Lots, but best example of successful bonding is Pomona, where two Parking Lots have been built, and work satisfactorily.

Procedure takes considerable time, from six months up.

Chas. Kerch, real estate expert, manager of properties in Lemon Grove and interested in seeing improved conditions, mentioned Walker-Scott project, "where
